The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XX^th Year.] THURSDAY, November 1, 1764. [N°. 1017.]

LONDON, August 23.

IT has been computed by those who are good Judges in West-Indian Affairs, that by cramping the Trade with the Spaniards in America, we have already been Sufferers in the Sum of 100,000 hard Pistoles.

We can assure the Public, that the most vigorous Measures are taking for obtaining immediate Satisfaction and Redress for the late Outrage at Turk's Island.

On Monday Evening a Messenger was sent from the Secretary of State's Office to the Earl of Hertford, his Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, with Dispatches of Importance.

Numbers of the Nobility and Gentry, who were not expected in Town till the Meeting of Parliament, are daily arriving from their Country Seats, by which it is conjectured that something important is on the Carpet. Thirty-two have arrived this Week.

Extract of a Letter from Hamburgh, August 1.

"A new Scene of Horror has stained the Annals of Russia, and furnished Occasion to many Reflections, which Prudence obliges me to pass over in Silence until the Circumstances and Causes of this strange Event are laid amply before the Public. The Event itself is as follows: One Mierenhoff, a Lieutenant in the Regiment of Smolenko, came with a Detachment of about 30 Men, by Night, the 15*th of last Month, to the Fortress of Sluttelburg, where the young Prince Ivan, or John, was removed some Time ago, by the Order of the Empress, from the Place of Confinement that has long been allotted to his unfortunate Family. This Lieutenant presented to the Governor of the Fortress a forged Order from the Empress, to the following Purpose: "That her Majesty had formed the Resolution of resigning the Imperial Crown of Russia, and of putting it on the Head of Prince Ivan, whom, in Conscience, she was obliged to acknowledge as the lawful Heir and Sovereign of Russia, and that she therefore commanded the Governor to set the Prince at Liberty." The Governor, looking upon this Declaration as an Imposture, refused to comply with it, shut the Gates upon Mierenhoff, and ordered his Men to Arms. Mierenhoff, on the other Hand, seemed to make Preparations for forcing the Governor to a Compliance, upon which the latter entered the Apartment of the young Prince, whom he murdered in his Bed with the most unrelenting Barbarity. The first Blow was but slight, and only served to awaken the unfortunate Prince, who struggled some Time for his Life, and even broke the Governor's Sword in the Scuffle; but Assistance was called for, and another bloody Assassin appeared, who finished the horrid Work. When the unhappy Ivan had expired in the Hands of these execrable Russians, the Governor opened the Gates of the Fortress, exposed the dead Body, stabbed in above ten Places, to the View of Mierenhoff and his Company, and said, in a taunting and insolent Manner, "There is your Emperor—let him now Head you——he will undoubtedly make a fine Figure on the Imperial Throne." Mierenhoff seemed to shew less Surprize and Indignation at the Conduct of the barbarous Governor, than might have been expected from a Person, who had espoused sincerely the Interests of the massacred Prince. He took off his Sash, and gave himself up tamely Prisoner to the Governor, saying, with more Coldness than suited such a horrid Catastrophe, That, "since his Master was dead, it was in vain to make any farther Resistance!"——This unhappy Prince was about* 24 Years old. He was the eldest Son of Anthony Ulric, second Brother to the reigning Duke of Brunswick, and of Anne, Daughter of Charles Leopold, Duke of Mecklenburg Schwerin, and Grand-Daughter of Czar Peter the Great. He was a Prince of great Spirit, nor had the Hardships of a perpetual State of Confinement extinguished that Vigour of Mind, and those happy Talents, which so eminently characterize the illustrious House of Brunswick. It is true, the bare Fate of his Family had something in it peculiarly affecting to a generous Mind; and lighter Calamities have been known to impair the Understandings of Men, that were far from being destitute of Courage and Resolution. It has also been alledged, that this was, in a certain Degree, the Case of the late unhappy Victim of Russian Barbarity; but this is a Mistake, and perhaps his untimely End will be considered by many as, at least, a presumptive Evidence, that he was no Idiot. Few, indeed, have had Access to this Prince, and few therefore can testify either for or against his Abilities; but Truth, like Fame, will often force its Way through the best guarded Passages so far, at least, as that some of its Reports will reach the Ears of the Public; and according to those Reports, the unfortunate Ivan, whose Fate the Voice of Nations will deplore, was a Prince whose Sentiments and Understanding rendered him much more worthy of a Crown, than many even of those who have worn one with Reputation. Be that as it may, Humanity will drop a Tear upon his Grave, and contemplate with a Sigh the Uncertainty of human Grandeur. It will also look with the most painful Feelings of Anxiety and Distress, towards those inhospitable Walls, that still contain a noble Prince, whose Happiness it will be to remain in Ignorance of his Son's tragical End, and four youthful and illustrious Captives, who have the Misfortune to descend from PETER the Great."

August 25. A Courier arrived here Yesterday Morning from Spain, with Dispatches to our Court.

On Thursday Night died at Tunbridge Wells, where he went for the Recovery of his Health, the Right Hon. Henry Bilson Legge, Esq; Uncle to the Earl of Dartmouth, some Time Chancellor of the Exchequer, Member for the County of Southampton, and Fellow of the Royal Society.

All the English Settlements in the Channel of Bahama, are ordered to be put in a thorough State of Defence.

It is now said, that our Naval Strength in the West-Indies is to be augmented with all Expedition by fifteen Ships of the Line, to be manned chiefly with turn-overs from other Ships daily paying off at Portsmouth, Plymouth and Chatham.

The Guard-Ships at Portsmouth have Orders to augment each Ship with 30 Men.

On board the Manilla Ship, the Sante Trinidad, bound from thence for Aquapulco, and brought to England by some of Admiral Cornish's Squadron, there are 85,112 Pair of Silk Stockings, 20,000 Pieces of India Handkerchiefs, Silk thrown and raw, China Ware a large Quantity, India Piece Goods of all Sorts, silk and white Cloth, a great Quantity of Muslins of all Sorts, Drugs, Spices, &c.

The Naturalization of Three foreign Personages of high Distinction, we are informed, is now resolved upon.

It is now said the late Dismission of some Persons from their Employments is like to be a Fund for much political Altercation in the ensuing Sessions.

It is said the Re-settlement of the Island of Rattan in the Bay of Honduras, is now upon the Carpet: This Place will not only be very advantageous in the Logwood Trade, but also be a rendezvous for our Shipping on the Musquito Shore, and very advantageously situated for Commerce with the Spaniards.—A Scheme of this kind was undertaken six and twenty Years ago, by Major Caulfield, in the Litchfield Man of War from Jamaica, but came to nothing.

August 30. Monday last was the Day fixed for the Election of a King of Poland, in a large Field near Warsaw; when it is imagined, from several concurring Circumstances mentioned in Letters from Poland, that Count Poniatowski was chosen.

Some foreign Advices seem to intimate, that the late extraordinary Preparations of the French and Spaniards in their Marine, were resolved upon, in Consequence of undoubted Intelligence received from their Agents in this Kingdom, that a Change in the English Ministry would assuredly take Place before Christmas.

It is said a Quantity of Ordnance, and three Companies of Foot, will shortly embark, for the better Protection of the English Settlements on Black River, Musketo Shore.

The Shipwrights and Caulkers in his Majesty's Yard at Plymouth, now work a Day and one Tide, for the more speedily compleating the Men of War ordered to be fitted out for foreign Service.

September 1. It is said our Ambassador at Paris, on presenting the Memorial on the Behaviour of the French at Turk's Island, received but a very evasive and unsatisfactory Answer; having been told, according to the Quibbling of that Court, that it should be enquired into, but required Time.

It is now said, should the French persist in their Design of sending Troops to Corsica, an English Fleet may possibly visit the Mediterranean in a little Time.

This Week arrived in Town very strong Remonstrances from the Northern Colonies, with Respect to their cramped Trade, by Means of some late Regulations in America:—As did also several Petitions from the British Islands in the West-Indies: All which are preparing, by their respective Agents, to be laid before the ensuing Parliament.

At some late Sales of American Furrs, great Quantities have been bought up by French Agents, at so high a Price as 11. 17 s. per lb the best Beaver: So greatly are they pinched to carry on this valuable Manufactory, since the Cession of Canada to Great-Britain.

In Consequence of the late Regulations in the Marine, there are now few Ports of any Note, either in the Adriatick, Mediterranean, or Coasts of Italy, where regular Contracts are not entered into, for the occasional future Supply of his Majesty's Ships and Transports with every Requisite both in War, Victualling, and Furniture. And the same Precaution has also been taken in the Baltic.

Three new 74 Gun Ships are ordered to be built in Greenland Dock with all Expedition, in the Room of some old Men of War of that Rate to be laid up.

Sept. 4. On Friday Night, at Ten o'Clock, his Royal Highness the Duke of York landed at Dover from Calais, where his Royal Highness lay that Night, and on Saturday at Noon he arrived in good Health at his House in Pall-Mall; he afterwards waited on the Princess Dowager of Wales at Carlton-House, and at Five o'Clock set out for Richmond, to visit their Majesties, who received him very affectionately.

Yesterday his Royal Highness was at Court, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and foreign Ministers, on his safe Arrival in England.

Saturday some Sailors were employed in pasting up, in all the public Places, printed Bills, to encourage all able-bodied Seamen to enter on board his Majesty's Ships of War, now lying at Portsmouth.

Three rendezvous Houses are actually opened in Wapping, to enter 1500 Men to Man the Guard-ships, and three Ships of War, which are going out on an Expedition.

We are credibly informed, that a certain patriotic Member of an august Assembly, strenuously advised the securing the Salt Islands, in the West-Indies at all Events, and from every Insult, if we tendered our Fishery or the Dignity of the British Name in Europe; it having been fully proved, that two of these Places are intirely English Property.

A Transport in the River is now taking on board several Artillery Stores, Fire-arms, and Bayonets, for Bermuda.

It is said a very considerable Duty will be laid next Sessions on the Exportation of Furrs and Beaver to France, in order to prevent our being rivalled by any other Nation in this Manufacture.

They write from Bristol, that the principal Merchants of that City intend to support with all their Interest the independent free Trade of the North American Colonies; the late unnatural Restraint upon which, from their large Connections with England, has already occasioned some Alarms, that if not timely removed, may be attended with very melancholy Consequences, with regard to the Credit of North-America.

An Account of the Election of the King of Poland is expected to arrive here, by a Courier, on Thursday next.

Sept. 6. All the Ships that are fitting out for Sea, both at Chatham and Sheerness, are ordered to be victualled and manned with all Expedition.

The Event of the Election of a King of Poland is hourly expected. These Elections are held near Warsaw in an open Field, surrounded with Ditches, and covered over with Boards; the Poles call it the Szopa, or Cola: On the Day fixed for opening the Dyet, the Senators and Nuncios are present at the Celebration of a Mass of the Holy Ghost in the Cathedral Church of St. John at Warsaw; after which they repair to the Cola; and when they have elected a Marshal of the Nuncios, they form a Confederation or Treaty, by which the Members of the Dyet take an Oath, not to separate till they have elected a King, and not to acknowledge any Candidate, if he has not been chosen by their unanimous Approbation, nor render him any Act of Obedience, till he has sworn to observe the Pacta Conventa, and the other Laws of the Kingdom.

It is currently reported, that some considerable Removals will soon take place by Consent of both Parties, in consequence of a certain Scheme of Mediation, offered by a great Personage, whose good Offices the Heads of either will find it their Account to accept, in order to restore the public Tranquility.

Monday Night Orders came down to his Majesty's Dock Yard at Portsmouth, to fit out immediately the Thunderer Man of War, Captain Hood, for Sea.

The St. Alban's Man of War of 64 Guns, lately launched at Blackwall, is fitting for Sea at Woolwich with all Expedition.

Sept. 8. A Vessel lately arrived at Rouen, and that touched in her Passage at Gibraltar, reports, that she saw an English Frigate bring in there a Sallee Rover, of considerable Force.

We can assure the Public, that the Answer of the Court of France to the Memorial presented by his Majesty's Ambassador there, complaining of what had lately passed at Turk's Island, contains as strong a Disavowal of the Violence committed there by the Count d'Estaing, and as explicit Assurances of their Resolution to cultivate the Continuance of the Public Tranquility as Words can convey; and that upon the first Rumour of this Transaction, even previous to their receiving our Representations, they had dispatched a Corvette with Orders to Count d'Estaing, requiring an Account of the Motives of his Conduct.

Several Private Letters from Berlin, which arrived Yesterday by the Dutch Mails, bring Advice, that Count Poniatowski was elected King of Poland, in the usual Form, on the 27th ult. under the Name of Stanislaus the Second. These Letters add, that the Election Tent was 20 Fathoms long, and eight wide, lined with red Cloth, with a Wall behind, and a Bank on each side; and that the Regalia, which was brought to Warsaw by the Bishop of Culm on the 22d from Cracow, consisted of Five Crowns, Four Scepters, a Globe, Three Gold Chains, and a Sable richly ornamented.

There are some Advices by the last French Mail, which mention, that the Court of Spain have determined to effect a Settlement somewhere on the Coast of Guiney, for the better supplying their extensive American Dominions with Slaves, without being obliged to purchase them with such vast Sums from Foreigners.—Three Men of War sailed the 18th ult. for this Purpose.

ANNAPOLIS, November 1.

We are assured, that the General Assembly of this Province, which now stands Prorogued to the 17th Instant, will not Then meet; but that a Proclamation of a Dissolution, and Writs for a General Election, will Issue, before that Time.

Last Friday Evening, about VII o'Clock, when it was very Cold and Windy, the Town was Alarm'd with the Cry of FIRE. It proved to be in the Chimney of a House, near the Public Buildings, formerly the Residence of Governor CALVERT: The Chimney was extreme Dirty, and Burnt near an Hour, and the House, which is high, old, and built of Wood, catch'd in many Places; but by the extraordinary Vigilance and Activity of the Inhabitants, with the Assistance of the Engine, the Fire was happily extinguish'd. Had that House burnt down, at that Time, in all Probability, many of the Buildings at the Head of the Dock would likewise have been reduced to Ashes, and the Destruction very great. [It may not be amiss to remind our Neighbours, that they ought to keep their Chimneys clean, which would be but a trifling Expence, rather than by Neglect to expose not only their own Substance, but that of Others, perhaps their All, to that destroying Element.]

One Day last Week, the Dwelling-House of Mr. THOMAS REYNOLDS, on the Cliffs in Calvert County, one of the best Buildings in it, together with a Quantity of Rum, Wine, English Goods, and 4 or 5 Feather Beds, was destroy'd by Fire: The Damage said to be at least 2000 l. It was occasion'd by an adjacent Quarter accidentally taking Fire, which communicated itself to the Roof of the Brick Dwelling; and not having much Help at Hand, it burnt with such Fury, that they had Time only to save Part of the Houshold Goods.

HAVING lately RESIGNED the Office of D. POST-MASTER, at Annapolis, I must request all those who are Indebted to me for Postages, to make Payment.

JONAS GREEN, LATE D. P. M^r.

ANNAPOLIS, November 1, 1764.

THE MAILS will be dispatched from the POST-OFFICE in Church-Street, at Seven o'Clock on Monday Morning precisely. No Letters will be delivered out of the Office to any Person whatever without Pay.

ANTHONY STEWART, D. P. M^r.

WANTED,

A PERSON Qualified to conduct the Business of a County Clerk's Office. Enquire of Thomas Johnson, Esqr of Annapolis.

…Majesty's Dock Yard at Portſmouth, to fit out immediately the Thunderer Man of War, Captain Hood, for Sea.

The St. Alban's Man of War of 64 Guns, lately launched at Blackwall, is fitting for Sea at Woolwich with all Expedition.

Sept. 7. A Veſſel lately arrived at Rouen, and that touched in her Paſſage at Gibraltar, reports, that ſhe ſaw an Engliſh Frigate bring in there a Sallee Rover, of conſiderable Force.

We can aſſure the Public, that the Anſwer of the Court of France to the Memorial preſented by his Majeſty's Ambaſſador there, complaining of what had lately paſſed at Turk's Iſland, contains as ſtrong a Diſavowal of the Violence committed there by the Count d'Eſtaing, and as explicit Aſſurances of their Reſolution to cultivate the Continuance of the Public Tranquility as Words can convey; and that upon the firſt Rumour of this Tranſaction, even previous to their receiving our Repreſentations, they had diſpatched a Corvette with Orders to Count d'Eſtaing, requiring an Account of the Motives of his Conduct.

Several Private Letters from Berlin, which arrived Yeſterday by the Dutch Mails, bring Advice, that Count Poniatowſki was elected King of Poland, in the uſual Form, on the 27th ult. under the Name of Staniſlaus the Second. Theſe Letters add, that the Election Tent was 60 Fathoms long, and eight wide, lined with red Cloth, with a Wall behind, and a Bank on each ſide; and that the Regalia, which was brought to Warſaw by the Biſhop of Culm on the 22d from Cracow, conſiſted of Five Crowns, Four Scepters, a Globe, Three Gold Chains, and a Sable richly ornamented.

There are ſome Advices by the laſt French Mail, which mention, that the Court of Spain have determined to effect a Settlement ſomewhere on the Coaſt of Guinea, for the better ſupplying their extenſive American Dominions with Slaves, without being obliged to purchaſe them with ſuch vaſt Sums from Foreigners.—Three Men of War ſailed the 19th ult. for this Purpoſe.

ANNAPOLIS, November 1.

We are aſſured, that the General Aſſembly of this Province, which now ſtands Prorogued to the 27th Inſtant, will not Then meet; but that a Proclamation of a Diſſolution, and Writs for a General Election, will iſſue, before that Time.

Laſt Friday Evening, about VII o'Clock, when it was very Cold and Windy, the Town was Alarm'd with the Cry of FIRE. It proved to be in the Chimney of a Houſe, near the Public Buildings, formerly the Reſidence of Governor CALVERT: The Chimney was extreme Dirty, and Burnt near an Hour, and the Houſe, which is high, old, and built of Wood, catch'd in many Places; but by the extraordinary Vigilance and Activity of the Inhabitants, with the Aſſiſtance of an Engine, the Fire was happily extinguiſh'd. Had the Houſe burnt down, at that Time, in all Probability, many of the Buildings at the Head of the Dock would likewiſe have been reduced to Aſhes, and the Deſtruction very great. [It may not be amiſs to remind our Neighbours, that they ſhould at leaſt have their Chimneys clean, which would be but a trifling Expence, rather than by Neglect to endanger not only their own Habitations, but that of Others, perhaps their all, to the Aſtoniſhing Damage.]

Laſt Week, the Dwelling-Houſe of Mr. Thomas Ravenſcroft, on the Cliffs in Calvert County, with all the Buildings in it, together with a Quantity of Wine, Rum & Goods, were entirely conſumed by Fire: The Damage is eſtimated at leaſt 5000 l. It was occaſioned by an accidental Spark falling from the Hearth into the Cock-Loft, and not having been diſcovered 'till it had got to the Roof, ſuch Fury, &c.

LEAVING been appointed the Office of Poſt-Maſter, for Annapolis, I muſt requeſt all thoſe who are indebted for the Poſtage, to make Payment.

JONAS GREEN, LATE D. P. M.

ANNAPOLIS, November 1, 1764.

THE MAILS will be diſpatched from the POST-OFFICE in Church-Street, at Seven o'Clock on Monday Morning preciſely. No Letters will be delivered out of the Office to any Perſon whatever, without Pay.

A TRACT of PATENT LAND, lying on Patuxent River, in Calvert County, commonly called Capt. Jenifer's Plantation, formerly Rented by James Harrison, and now in the Tenure of the Widow Harrison. For Terms apply to Mr. Charles Ramsay in Charles-Town.

WINDOW GLASS,

AT THE

MEDICINAL STORE,

IN

Baltimore-Town,

BY

JOHN BOYD, & Company,

WITH

Druggs, Chymicals, Galenicals, Perfumery, Grocery, Patent Medicines, Paints, Court Plaister;

ROB of LEMONS,

At the said Store is put up in the neatest Manner, and with the greatest Care,

THE NEW MEDICINE CHEST,

Which, to those that have already tried, has given the greatest Satisfaction. The Directions are printed, and have been well approved of by some of the first Physicians on the Continent. As we purpose to apply our whole Attention to this Business, (the first of the Kind in the Province) and shall constantly keep a full and compleat Assortment of every Thing in our Way, we hope thereby to merit the Encouragement of the Public.

We shall Import regularly twice a Year: but if we should run short of any Articles before the Arrival of our Importation, we shall supply such Deficiency from our Drug-Store in Philadelphia, as there are weekly Opportunities from thence to this Place; so that our Customers may always depend on having their Orders compleatly executed, without any Difference of Price.

N. B. Convevance as usual, by Way of Messieurs Middleton and Reith.

WILLIAM KNAPP, WATCH-MAKER,

TAKES this Method to acquaint the Public, That he has provided an Assistant in the WATCH-MAKING BUSINESS, which will enable him the better to Dispatch the Work of those Gentlemen who have, and may employ him. He hopes his past Endeavours in that Way, may have answered the desired End. It is manifest from daily Experience, that Numbers of Watches (which have been originally well executed) have severely suffered thro' the unskilful and injudicious Practice of some Men, who assumed the Knowledge of a Business to which they were only Pretenders. Those Watches which have been many Years in Use, and consequently Worn, he will engage to Mend, as well as when New, and will on a very moderate Expence keep, those he Repairs, in Order, for Ten Years, all Damages excepted which may accrue to 'em from Accidents, such as a Fall, and the Breaking of a Main Spring, which the most discerning Workman cannot often Account for, nor the ablest prevent.

He Makes, and will Supply any Gentlemen with HORIZONTAL, SECONDS, or PLAIN WATCHES, and will engage the Quality to be equal to any Imported from LONDON.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living near Annapolis, about the last of June, a Mulatto Fellow named Cyrus, about 5 Feet high; he is bow legg'd, his Toes incline to turn inwards, has a down Look, and is slow of Speech; has black Hair, which curls much. Had on a Cloth colour'd Waistcoat, with yellow Metal Buttons, an Osnabrigs Shirt, and old Leather Breeches.

Whoever brings the said Fellow home, shall have Twenty Shillings Reward. If taken out of the Province, Forty Shillings, and reasonable Charges, if brought home, paid by

GERARD HOPKINS, junior.

N. B. He formerly belonged to Capt. Thomas Gantt, in Prince-George's County, and is a noted Runaway.

ANNAPOLIS: Printed by Jonas Green and William Rind, in Church-Street. All Persons may be supplied with this GAZETTE at 12*s.* and 6*d. per* Year. ADVERTISEMENTS of a moderate Length are inserted for 5*s.* the First Week, and 1*s.* each Time after: And Long Ones in Proportion.
